I've gotten these. Just ignore it. These guys send it out like Spam to hundreds of email addresses at a time hoping someone takes the bait and pays them. I find it annoying more than anything.

Take care

Hello!

I am a hacker who has access to your operating system. I also have full access to your account.

> Liar!

I've been watching you for a few months now. The fact is that you were infected with malware through an adult site that you visited.

> Liar! I Don't Visit Adult Sites!

If you are not familiar with this, I will explain. Trojan Virus gives me full access and control over a computer or other device. This means that I can see everything on your screen, turn on the camera and microphone, but you do not know about it.

I also have access to all your contacts and all your correspondence.

Why your antivirus did not detect malware? Answer: My malware uses the driver, I update its signatures every 4 hours so that your antivirus is silent.

> Liar!

I made a video showing how you satisfy yourself in the left half of the screen, and in the right half you see the video that you watched. With one click of the mouse, I can send this video to all your emails and contacts on social networks. I can also post access to all your e-mail correspondence and messengers that you use.

> Ha, Ha, Ha! Go Ahead, Make My Day! LOL!!!

If you want to prevent this, transfer the amount of $500 to my bitcoin address (if you do not know how to do this, write to Google: "BuyBitcoin"). My bitcoin address (BTC Wallet) is:

> Forget You! Anybody Reading This, Save Your Money From Extortionists!
> Don't Pay!

After receiving the payment, I will delete the video and you will never hear me again. I give you 50 hours (more than 2 days) to pay. I have a notice reading this letter, and the timer will work when you see this letter.

> LOL!!! Liar! Too Late!!!

Filing a complaint somewhere does not make sense because this email can not be tracked like my bitcoin address. I do not make any mistakes.

> Give It A Rest!

If I find that you have shared this message with someone else, the video will be immediately distributed.
