I'm selling a Ten no Koe game saver with box. This is NOT THE BACKUP CARD but hardware that plugs into the back of the PC Engine. It enables games to be saved since the PC Engine system itself had no way of saving games. The US equivalent to this is the Turbo Booster Plus, just the Ten no Koe doesn't have the A/V outs. If you want a picture of the box or unit itself that can be arranged. I'm just asking $25 because that's how much I paid. Shipping will probably be 4 or 5 dollars.
Thanks.
