From ComingSoon.net's weekly Star Wars Roundup ...

Yahoo! UK reports that a Star Wars TV series may be headed to Netflix much like the recent Marvel TV series:

According to a source close to production, a new 'Star Wars' TV series is currently straight to Netflix.

"I've been hearing some talk that the 'Star Wars' license will move onto Netflix properties as well as 'Star Wars Rebels.' The idea being tossed around right now is a series focusing on Cad Bane from 'The Clone Wars'. But this is very early talks."
