This is being posted for a friend.. (Sure. That's what they all say.)

Anybody know of typesetters (or incredibly intelligent word processors) for writing technical papers (I.E. Equations and other ugly things) are available for STs?

I have heard of 2:

Andra S/T from Tdi Software

Typesetter S/T from Xlent software.

however i have not tried either. From the publicity material Andra S/T seems more like what you are looking for.
